The statement is as follows. Soon after I had entered into an engagement of marriage with Thomas B. Nichols the overseers of the preparative meeting, with the full knowledge of such an engagement presented a complaint against him purporting to be for unbecoming behaviour in religious meetings — but generally understood by friends to be an act of persecution by those in authority who had themselves departed from the pure principles of the society for his firm adherence to and uncompromising support of sound doctrine. In pursuance of this design Thomas was disowned, nor did an appeal to the quarterly and yearly meetings avail anything in his case; so that being prevented from the usual course of proposing our intentions to a meeting for discipline, and believing the time had come for us to fulfil our engagement to agreeably to the advice of our Discipline, we proceeded to take each other in marriage as nearly after the manner of friends as the circumstances would permit, Had it been in our power we should have made our proposals in a meeting of friends, and proceeded in all the stages conformably to their usages, but under the circumstances it is very evident we could do no such thing, a state of things I can but regret.

The preparative accounts being present the representatives are Phoebe Foster Paulina Foster Hannah Carpenter & Eliza Foster whose names being called two are absent, for one of whom a satisfactory reason has been assigned. — The queries have been read with answers from those usually answerers, and I have selected which appear to comprise the present state of this meeting which we forward with the account to the ensuing quarterly meeting by Eunice Foster and Lydia Wilbur our representatives. The committee appointed at our last mo meeting to take into consideration the delinquent preparative meetings, have made the following report. — It appears that the cause of delinquency arises from most of the members of these preparative meetings have departed from our principals, so far as to identify themselves with the separatists and the number remaining not being sufficient to hold preparative meetings we therefore recommend to the Soc Meeting the annexation of them to some other preparative meetings. On behalf of the Committee.
